

Alabama Public Television's
IQ Learning Adventures presents

Project C: Lessons from the American Civil Rights Movement

Year 2, Episode 4

Electronic Field Trip

November 13, 2014

11-11:30 AM & 1-1:30 PM EST*

10-10:30 AM & 12-12:30 PM CST*

Please check your local time zone so you will not miss it!*

If you are unable to schedule your viewing during this time, no problem. We'll upload this episode to our archives and email you a link when it is ready.*

Our live guests are here to answer your/your students' questions. Submit questions NOW to projectcquestions@gmail.com!

Meet our host and guests:

HOST:

Kwame Holman

Writer/Reporter

Former PBS NewsHour Corespondent

Congressional/Political Correspondent

LIVE GUESTS:

Marcia F. Johnson-Blanco

Voting Rights Project Co-Director,
Lawyers' Committee for Civil Rights Under Law

Nick Kotz

Journalist/Historian/Author

Judgment Days: Lyndon Baines Johnson, Martin Luther King Jr., and the Laws That Changed America

Pulitzer Prize for National Reporting, 1968

SEGMENTS FEATURE:

Gwen Ifill

Television Newscaster/Author

Co-anchor, PBS NewsHour

Managing Editor and Moderator, Washington Week

Senator Hank Sanders

Civil Rights Lawyer/Alabama State Senator

Voter Registration Drive Organizer

Selma to Montgomery March Participant

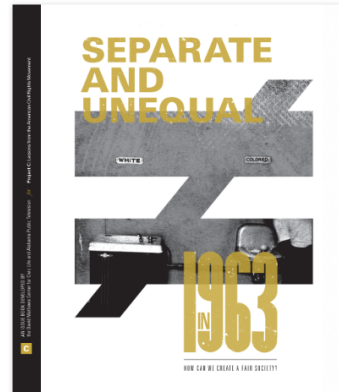

Get ready for the new season:

View all three episodes from last season in our online archives.

Engage your students! FREE Teacher Resources:

- Prepare your students for the upcoming new episode with the NEW Separate and Unequal in 1963: How Can We Create a Fair Society? Issue Guide book.

This book further explores the timeline of the civil rights movement while encouraging group discussion and deliberation as a tool for progress.

- As a companion to the Guide book, a video guide, “Becoming an Effective Moderator” is also available. Show your students how group discussion and deliberation can be utilized to make decisions that consider all points of view.
- NEW! Teaching resources for the Civil Rights Act of 1964 and the Voting Rights Act of 1965 are now available.
- View/print out a Project C flyer to share with administrators, students, teachers, and your community.

Engage your students by encouraging them to share their stories on our Project C community page. On this page they can upload text, photos, and videos to share human rights issues facing the youth of today with other Project C participants.

Visit project-c.org for more information.